VOLO VISION

MELISSA MITCHELL
Founder/CEO
VOLO Group

At VOLO Group we believe that the world of work is changing and that success, by whatever measurement, can only be attained when we collaborate and support every member of society. Because of this, we are committed to ensuring that every individual, regardless of background or situation, has access to skill development opportunities to help them become collaborative and socially minded members of the global workforce.

We are delighted to be partnering with organisations that share our passion for supporting personal development and achievement and we believe that universities play a key role in making this vision a reality. Thank you very much for your time in reviewing our offerings. We look forward to speaking with you.
